

Hypnagogic Art

Painting or sculpture: The container looks like a wastebasket with fluted sides. The sides are black, each having two thin, white, vertical, hand-painted lines. Inside, however, are pieces of sheet metal bent into the shape of roses, and then heated red-hot. We see a red glow emanating from inside the basket.