

Hypnagogic Art

Painting or sculpture: A carpet with thick, low, dark-green nap, white rubber base, raised as shown over two or more unpainted pine boards, which, however, are not parallel, as we might expect, but instead are at an angle of, say, 15 degrees each from the axis of the fold.